Hancock ss.—To the Sheriff of our said county of Hancock or either of the Deputies, or the Constables of the town of _____ within said county, or to any or either of them, GREETING.

IN the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to attach the goods or estate of Simon Brown of a place called Brownville in our said county—yeoman—to the value of twenty dollars; and for want thereof, to take the body of the said Simon if he may be found in your precinct and him safely keep so that he may be had before me, Moses Greenleaf, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace for the county aforesaid at my dwelling-house, in Williamstown in said county, on Saturday the twenty-first day of October 1815 at ten of the clock in the noon: then and there to answer unto Isaac Brown of a place called number two in said county, yeoman in a plea of the case, for that the said _____ at said on the day of the purchase of this writ, being indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of dollars and _____ cents, according to the account annexed; then and there, in consideration thereof, promised the plaintiff to pay him the same sum on demand.

Also for that the said Simon at a place called Piscataquis on the fifth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen by his note of hand, of that date, by him signed for value received, promised the plaintiff to pay him or his order, the sum of dollars, and _____ cents, twelve bushels of good rye in one year from the middle of January then next now last past, with interest, meaning with interest for delay, & said Isaac avers that said rye was in the said middle of January worth at the rate of one Dollar & twenty five cents for each bushel, & said twelve bushels were worth fifteen Dollars, & said plaintiff further avers that he was then & there ready to receive said rye

Yet, though often requested said Simon hath never paid said _____, nor any, or either of them, but neglects and refuses to do it.

To the damage of the said plaintiff as he says the sum of twenty dollars, as shall then and there appear, with other due damages.—Hereof fail not and make due return of this writ and of your doings therein, to myself at or before the said time and day of trial.

Dated at Williamstown aforesaid, the eleventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen
